Japanese Rice Paper Tape (Printed Temperature Checked)

Printed Japanese rice paper tape used to confirm the screening of body temperature. The tape is made from Japanese rice paper (Washi paper), which has a smooth texture, can be applied to any surface, is easily torn by hand and peels off without leaving adhesive residue.

Features

- Printed with easy to understand symbols.
- Used to clearly communicate that a person has been screened for body temperature
- Made from smooth Japanese Rice Paper (Washi Paper) that can be attached to any surface, including clothing
- Coated with a Natural Rubber Glue, which bonds strongly to the surface and removes cleanly without leaving adhesive residue
- Easily torn by hand and convenient to use
- Available in 2 colors: black and blue

Applications

- To confirm the screening of body temperature of customers and/or employees when entering or exiting hospitals, trade shows or shopping malls
